Carried To Full Term

Carried To Full Term (CTFT) is a 501 (c) 3 nonprofit organization providing long-term housing to pregnant and homeless women.

Our Mission

The mission of Carried To Full Term is to provide comprehensive long-term residential support for women who are pregnant and homeless. We invest in and empower vulnerable women and her family for lives of dignity, hope, independence and self-sufficiency.

Our Vision

We envision a community where families have safe, secure, and stable housing with sufficient resources and space to plan for their futures, and pursue happiness.

Directors Statement

Carried to Full Term blossomed from a simple "what if" scenario involving a pregnant high school teen into an inspiring basement project back in 2011. The transformative power of this idea became evident in 2016, when I was entrusted with the keys to our very first home.

Since November 2016, our program has welcomed many pregnant women who sought refuge within our walls. In the past year, we've helped Our primary objective for each woman admitted into our program is to guide her towards a newfound path of independence and self-sufficiency.

At Carried to Full Term, we firmly believe that every mother who crosses our threshold is part of a divine plan. Regardless of the duration of their stay, be it the full 24 months or merely a week, we are certain that the warmth and affection they encounter will act as a guiding light, propelling them towards a future far greater than they can imagine. As the scripture in Jeremiah 29:11 assures, God has an individualized plan for each of these women—a plan brimming with hope and a promising future.

If our humble abode serves as a stepping stone on the journey of hope for these incredible mothers, we are immensely honored to play a role in this grander scheme.

Carried To Full Term's Cycle Breakers Are Changing Moms' Lives, One Heart at a Time

As Mother Theresa said, "Not all of us can do great things. But we can do small things with great love." Carried To Full Term's Cycle Breaker program is the perfect example of doing something small to help someone else. Founded in 2012 by Frances Robin, the nonprofit organization Carried To Full Term (CTFT) provides long-term housing to pregnant and homeless women. "Our goal is to invest in stabilizing women and their families. We provide the tools, support, and resources to help women become independent and self-sufficient."

Carried to Full Term Hosts Annual Gala for Pregnant, Homeless Women

To support this mission of restoring hope and dignity in women's lives, CTFT has the exciting opportunity to acquire two new homes in support of this mission. The Expansion Project will provide added housing options to families in crisis seeking to break cycles of poverty. The expansion will impact generations of families, and their children will reap the benefits of stability.

IN THE NEWS

‘Every baby deserves a home.’: An interview with Carried To Full Term, the organization housing pregnant women without shelter

Our executive director was quoted in Prince William Times, “The work is big, it’s deep, it’s dirty and it’s very fulfilling,” said Frances Robin, the director and founder of Carried To Full Term. “Our tiny staff makes it look easy, but we are working so tirelessly to expand and extend services to the greater community. At Carried to Full Term, our goal is to take the burden off the woman and invest in her. We recognize when housing needs are not met, families cannot do the next thing. Mothers cannot do the next thing.”

We are indebted to all our contributors for their unwavering belief in our mission and their continuous support. Without your generosity, none of our achievements would have been possible. Together, we are creating a brighter future for those we serve and fostering positive change in our society.

Incredible Volunteers

We would like to express our deepest gratitude to all the amazing individuals who work tirelessly in the garden, mentor the moms, and teach our classes. Your unwavering dedication and commitment to nurturing the growth and well-being of others is truly remarkable. The gardeners, with their green thumbs and love for nature, create beautiful spaces that bring joy and fresh food into lives. Their hard work in cultivating vibrant flowers, delicious fruits, and bountiful vegetables is a testament to your passion and expertise. To the mentors who selflessly guide and support mothers, offering wisdom, encouragement, and a helping hand, you play an invaluable role in shaping the lives of both the mothers and their children. Your presence and guidance provide comfort, strength, and hope during challenging times. And to the exceptional teachers who impart knowledge and inspire young minds, your dedication to education is truly commendable. Through your guidance and enthusiasm, you ignite a love for learning and empower students to reach their full potential. Each and every one of you plays a vital part in creating a nurturing and supportive environment, and for that, we are forever grateful. Thank you for your unwavering commitment and for making a positive difference in the lives of so many.
